About Our Keynote Speaker

Ray Ray McElrathbey

Ray Ray spent his childhood dealing with a mother who was a drug addict and father who was in and out of his life due to his own demons. He often lived with his coaches due to an unstable family life. The Disney+ film Safety shares Ray Ray's story as a shining example of perseverance triumphing through repeated adversity and the message of family above everything can impact an entire community. Overcoming these struggles, Ray Ray still managed to earn a football scholarship to Clemson University. He earned his degree from Clemson in only three years and continued playing football and pursuing his Master's Degree at Howard University.

Ray Ray's many accolades include being named ABC News' Person of the Week, featured on the Oprah Show, ESPN's Keith Jackson Excellence Award, College Football Writers Association Courage Award, and earning numerous 'Father of the Year' awards.

Through his personal and work experiences, he was motivated to establish the Ray Ray Safety Net Foundation. The Foundation seeks to provide children who are dealing with trauma with a ray of hope through education and mentorship accountability programs. It took a village to raise Ray Ray, and he believes that every person needs support to be their best.
